The Admission Guideline for NTNU Religion Research Scholarship

Amendment passed by the Department Faculty Meeting on 2025.06.04
Amendment passed by the 114 Academic Year Scholarship Committee on 2026.03.30

1. Origin

Retired Professor Yan, Ke-Chi from Department of English, NTNU and Adjunct Professor Chang, Chun-Jung from Department of Chinese, NTNU donated 200,000 NTD to establish the Religion Research Scholarship. The scholarship aims to award students engaged in religious researches or producing creative religious works.

2. Scholarship Title

The scholarship is named “NTNU Religion Research Scholarship.”

3. Scholarship Fund

The scholarship fund currently stands at 200,000 NTD.

4. The Scholarship Committee

The Scholarship Committee is consisted of 3 members. The Department Chair serves as the convener, with Professor Yan, Ke-Chu as Ex Officio. The Department Chair is responsible for selecting other members with a religious inclination.

5. Quotas and Benefits

- (1) Quotas: 3 students.
- (2) Benefits: 6000 NTD per recipient.
- (3) The quota and benefits may vary based on interest rate fluctuations.

6. Qualification

- (1) Enrolled in either undergraduate or graduate program at NTNU.
- (2) Attained a GPA of 3.4 (or equivalent to 80) or above in the prior semester.
- (3) Applicants who have not received any other scholarships from NTNU within the same semester, who are registered under low income or medium-low income household and who are underprivileged students have the priority to be awarded.

7. How to Apply

- (1) Applicants must submit the following documents to the Department of English:
  1. Application Form (available on the department website).
  2. A photocopy of the applicant’s student ID, government issued ID card / Alien Resident Certificate (ARC) (both the front and back), and Chunghwa Post bankbook.
  3. Certificate of Enrollment (please apply from the Office of Academic Affairs).
  4. Transcript from the prior semester.
  5. Biography.
